

*Christmas
Greetings*

AS WE SAIL INTO PORT AFTER THE LONG VOYAGE OF THE YEAR, OUR HEARTS ARE WARMED BY THE CHEERY SALUTATION OF THE HARBOUR
PILOT. AND, AS WE APPROACH THE SHORE, OUR THOUGHTS TURN
ONCE AGAIN TO THE GREAT PILOT OF THE UNIVERSE WHOSE BIRTH
WE CELEBRATE AT OUR JOURNEY'S END.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS
TO YOU AND YOURS
AND MAY ALL YOUR FUTURE VOYAGES
BRING YOU SAFELY TO PORT

PICKING UP THE PILOT — FRANK H. MASON

From his earliest youth, Frank Mason has been closely associated with ships and the sea. Born at Seaton Carew, Durham, England, in 1876, he was educated in private schools and on the famous naval training ship, H.M.S. CONWAY.

On graduation, he followed the seafaring life for a while and then took up professional engineering and shipbuilding at Leeds and Hartlepool.

He has travelled extensively all over the world and has made several voyages for purposes of sketching. An officer in the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve in World War I when he served in Europe, the North Sea and Egypt, he was attached for special duties to the Ministry of Home Security and the Admiralty during World War II.

"Picking Up The Pilot" is a charming pictorial memory from the mind of a man steeped in the lore of the Seven Seas.
